

I am an Amateur Radio Operator. Call sign KD1YQ. I have had many problems with power line arcing. The noise level is very high at times. These are seldom corrected. BPL will be adding to an already large noise level making receiving difficult to impossible. The utility companies do not have the expertise to handle interference.